

Dear Friend,

We are CommonWealth Kitchen, Boston's only non-profit food business incubator and local food hub. CommonWealth Kitchen is a collaborative community working to strengthen the local economy, particularly for people who have been impacted by racial, social, and economic inequality. We offer shared kitchens with integrated business assistance, creating and growing dynamic food-based businesses and careers.

Today, there are over 45 specialty food producers, food truck operators and caterers, working out of our two facilities in Dorchester and Jamaica Plain, making jams, salsas, cookies, chocolates, fresh juice, ice cream, bagels, other baked goods, and all variety of prepared meals. Combined, these businesses employ well over 100 people.

We are reaching out to you to provide you with information on our catering services. Enclosed is a catalog of all of our entrepreneurs who offering catering and are currently working out of our shared kitchen space. These entrepreneurs are amazing, hard-working people producing delicious food that we would love to share with you!

Our diverse array of businesses provides options for breakfast, lunch, dinner, dessert and everything in between including food trucks and full-service catering. We are sure you will find exactly what you are looking for. Please feel free to review each caterer's description and then check out their "order here" link to bring their wonderful food to your next event!

CommonWealth Kitchen looks to support our entrepreneurs in any way we can. We hope that with this catalog you also have the chance to support some great entrepreneurs and introduce them to your guests!
